UNDERSTANDING AND APPLYING LESSON 49

- 1. What is the only standard of godliness or righteousness? Why?
- 2. Why is it futile to compare our righteousness to any person other than Jesus Christ?
- 3. What does James 2:10 mean in your own words?
- 4. Is any sin small enough to be overlooked by God? Why or why not?
- 5. Are we right to conclude that not all sins are equal because we sense inherently that some are worse than others?
- 6. On what basis or authority can we conclude that some sins are worse than others?

7. What makes some sins worse than others? That is, in what way are they worse?

8. In what sense are all sins equal?

9. Read Romans 1. What happens to people and society as they pursue sinful desires rather than pursuing God?

10. What was God's answer to the curse of sin?
